

Terrifying Shadows – A New Era

~Event Guide~

Quick Overview

Required level:	19-100
Duration:	12th of March 12:00 CET – 18th of March 23:59 CET

Event summary:

Bigger, meaner and dead: Sargon is back! The Terrible returned and heroes are needed to stop his subordinates and to foil his plans.

The Terrible is BACK!

Collect Coffee Beans from worthy opponents everywhere in Dracania

Enter Stillwater Bay at night and collect Shadow Portal Fragments by destroying the Shadow Portals in the map to obtain Shadow Portals, leading you to Sargon's Shadowfort.

Collect Light Essences to step against Sargon and some of his minions.

Stillwater Bay at night:

Beach party? At night? Sounds like a lot of fun...or not!

This is the first event map, it requires 10 Coffee Beans to enter. Coffee Beans can drop from worthy monsters.

Monsters in Stillwater Bay at night can also drop Shadows, the event progress, Light Essences, as well as Shadow Portal Fragments.

The Shadow Portal Fragments are needed to complete the repeatable quest "Sneak through the Portal 1/1" provided by Jon Sunlair. This quest is granting you with a Shadow Portal that will lead you to Sargon's Shadowfort.

Sargon's Shadowfort:

Some heroes already had the honor of meeting the King of the Shadows in his prime, the others meet him for the first time. Whatever the conditions, Sargon will treat everyone equally cruel. Don't worry!

This is the main event map, leading to Sargon's Throne Room. Monsters in this map can drop Shadows, the event progress, as well as general monster loot.

Look for the three Shadow Altars in the map. Interact with all of them and defeat Sargon's Gatekeepers.

Face the Soul Collector Sentinel (requires Light Essences to fight against it, same as the other Soul Collector monsters), that stays between you and the path to the King of Shadows!

Defeating him will unlock the door on top of the map, leading to Sargon's Throne Room, where the real challenge awaits you!

Map objects (Amphorae, Lockpick Chests, Shadow Altars, Map Sentinel and Sargon's Throne Room entry)

Sargon's Throne Room:

What makes a good villain? Good persistence! Even in death, Sargon never gives up on his dream of subjugating Dracania!

This is the Boss map of the event, where Sargon the Terrible is waiting for you. The Boss can drop Shadows, the new Shadow Reign Set Items and even the new Sargon Costume, to look as terrifying as Sargon himself! The Boss requires Light Essences to fight against him and his evil minions.

Shadows dropped per run on each difficulty:

Difficulty	Normal	Painful	Excruciating	Fatal	Infernal	Merciless	Bloodshed
Amount of Shadows	103	189	291	501	810	1360	2235

Shadow Reign Set Bonuses

Shadow Reign (0/8)

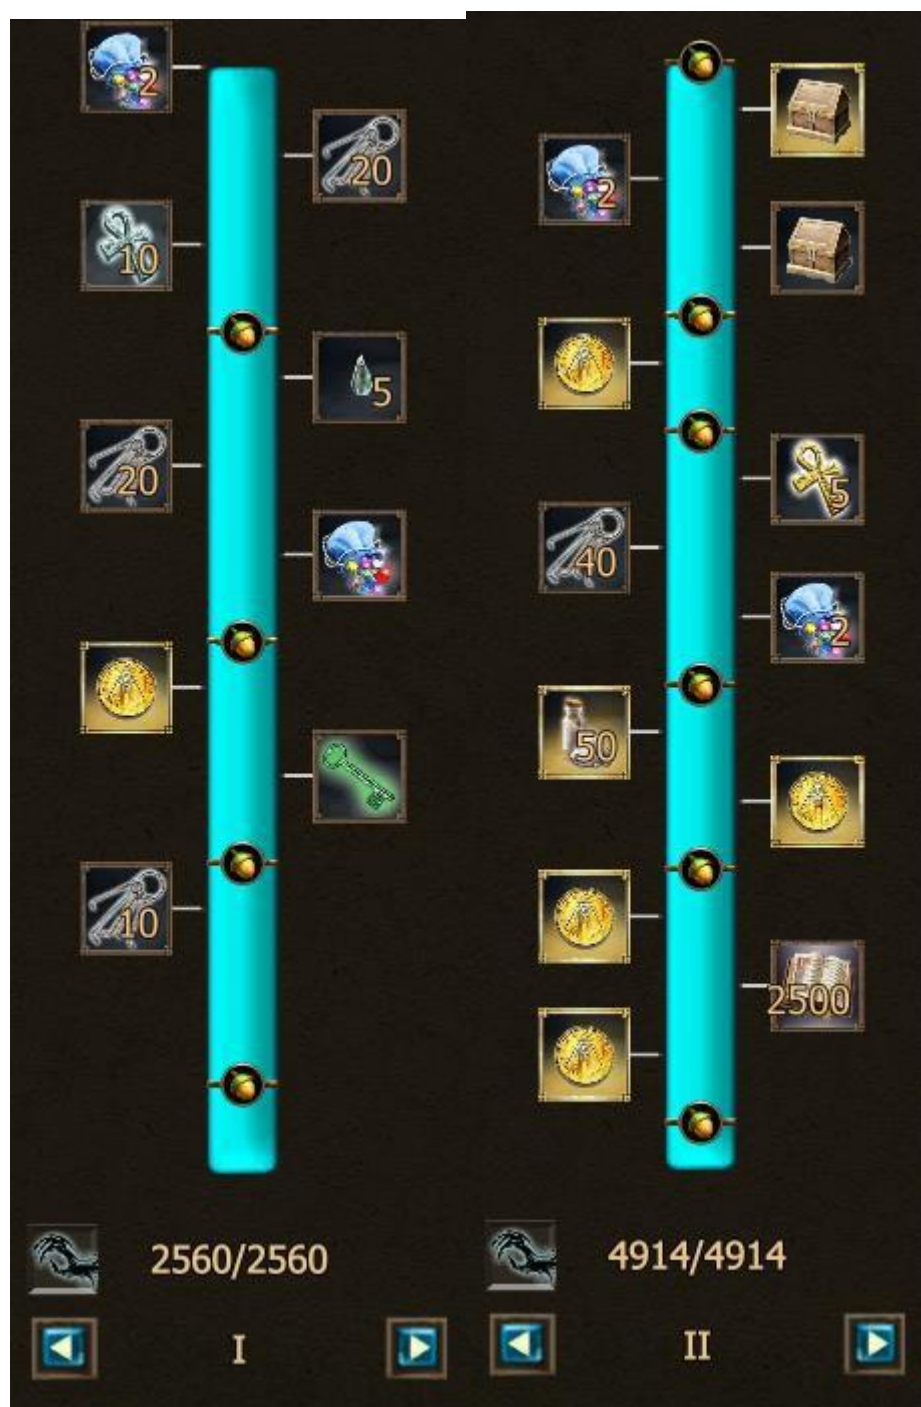

Shadow Reign Boots
Shadow Reign Claw Gloves
Shadow Reign Hat
Shadow Reign Scroll
Shadow Reign Staff
Shadow Reign Pauldrons
Shadow Reign Robe
Shadow Reign Cloak

Bonus for pieces of equipment belonging to the same set:

(2): + 19375 Health Points (level dependent)
(3): + 1589 all resistance values (level dependent)
(4): + 1843 Armor value (level dependent)
(6): + 4289 Damage (level dependent)
(7): + 3831 critical value (level dependent)

You get the Dark Hatred Eruption buff that frees you from any debuff, heals you completely and fills up your Mana, while granting the Shield of Hatred buff, which protects you from any debuffs for 10 seconds.
Cooldown: 120 seconds.

*the Set bonuses are for Level 100 Set Gear

Progress Bars

The Mark of Mortis is one of the most significant event rewards.

It is used for entering Mortis' Exile, the Boss room of Mortis, God of Death, which is accessible if you finished the "The Last Trial 1/2" quest in Elysium.

Altogether you can obtain 32 Marks of Mortis from the progress bars, but with the Event Attire active, you can obtain additional 5 Marks as a drop from Sargon.

Requirements and useful tips:

- You need to be Level 55 or above in order to unlock and accept the event quests provided by Jon Sunlair and Sir Hardy in Kingshill.
- To fight against Sargon's new reincarnation, you need to have finished the "The Terrible is Back" quest! In case you are in a group with other player/s and you have not finished the quest, but you friend/s have, you will arrive in another instance than for example your group members that completed the quests.
- The initial amount of Event Progress Bars is 2 or 3 (depending on your character level), but you are able to unlock the 3 remaining ones, if you had already finished the "The Terrible is Back" quest. In case you finish the quest during the ongoing duration of the event, you will still remain with 3 bars and will be able to unlock the 3 remaining ones on the next event, unless you farmed 0 progress from the current event's progress bars.
